From the Secretary of the college

Introducing Patel B.Ed. College in a lush green surroundings of village Katamkuku, Lodhma in newly formed district Khunti, is a matter of pride, privilege and pleasure for all of us. Believing in holistic development of human resources and striving for making the society a knowledge society, a small contribution is being made by us not only for spreading the message of universalization of education, but also helping to create employment opportunities for the creative, constructive and optimistic people of the society. Competence is a sum total of knowledge and skill which helps in capacity building which offers innumerable chances for advancement and development. This very thought has encouraged and motivated us to offer value added service in education and educational system, acting for the society as catalyst and helping in transformation of the society from nothing to every thing, from poor knowledge to professional knowledge, from poverty to prosperity.

Ready to welcome and prepare you to share knowledge and experience to mutual interest in warm and cordial environment of Patel B.Ed. College.

With best wishes
Sangeeta Kumari
Secretary
Patel B.Ed. College

Message

PRINCIPAL DESK

Dear Students & Teachers,

You have embarked upon the noble profession of teaching at a time when the world is going through rapid and profound economic, social and political transformations based on the emerging knowledge economy, a system of treating wealth that depends upon the creation and application of new knowledge. Such new knowledge can only be created by educated people with innovative ideas and skills. Producing such manpower with advanced and innovative knowledge and efficient skills depends upon our education system. This necessitates appropriate changes in all the aspects of educational goals, structures and types of academic institutions, curricula and so on. The responsibility of steering our education system and thereby our nation in this direction rests upon your shoulders.

We at Patel B.Ed. College aim at equipping the prospective teachers with knowledge that results in academic expertise, skills that lead to a techno savvy teacher performance, attitudes that gear you towards lifelong learning and pursuit of excellence and last but not the least professional values that will constantly remind you of your commitment and accountability towards the global society.

Taking into consideration the demands of the society from the teaching profession and the vision of Patel B.Ed. College to prepare globally competent teachers with a humane, collaborative and multi cultural outlook, I encourage you to create and engage in a collaborative learning environment wherein we all collectively develop as professionals and human beings through formal learning and training as well as through increased interactions.

Dr. Anuradha Kumari
Principal, Patel B.Ed. College
